

FAQs

A wedding is a moment of excitement and joy! We know that planning a wedding can also be stressful. We commit to providing excellent service during the entire process!

Here are answers to some of our most frequently asked questions.

Is there a deposit? When are the additional payments due? Do you offer a payment plan?

Yes. When the contract is signed, to continue holding the date, we require a $1,000 deposit. Six months prior to the event 50% of the remaining fee will be due. The final installment will be required 30 days prior to the event. You are welcome to send smaller, partial payments of any amount prior to the specified due date. We also reserve the right to request a credit card on file for any damages to the property.

How do I make payments?

Payments can be made by cash, check, Venmo, Zelle, PayPal or credit card. All processing fees incurred will be added to the final balance due.

When is my final head count due?

Your head count is due 3 weeks prior to the day of your wedding.

How many people to a table?

6-8

Can we do both ceremony and reception at your location?

Yes, we have several options, depending upon your guest count.

What are your restrictions?

No open flames and/or fog machines allowed inside. Only biodegradable products allowed.

Is Alcohol allowed?

Yes. All alcohol to be served by a licensed and insured bartender.

Do we have to use your preferred Vendors?

No. We do require all vendors to be licensed and insured, listing The Venue on SLC as an additional insured.

Do you provide table linens, cups, silverware, etc?

No, they can be rented through our preferred vendors, but not included in the rental fee.
